CHAIR'S GREETING

Hello Boys and Girls, Mums and Dads, Grans and Granddads — it's that time of year again, (oh yes it is,) — it's Pantotime. This year we have the story of the Snow Queen which has been adapted from the original Hans Christian Anderson story by our own Russell Workman. Russell has a long experience of performing in our pantos and has used this experience to give us a great story full of goblins, robbers, talking animals and, of course, the evil Snow Queen herself.

Direction is, once again, by Adrian Isaac who also has the onerous tasks of set design and construction as well as being our company Stage Manager. Surely one of the hardest workers in the theatre and he deserves the thanks of all the members.

Pantomime, like all other forms of drama, relies on teamwork. The ladies working under our Wardrobe Mistress, June, who designed all the costumes; the Props Team; everyone who has helped with the music and dance routines; Backstage, Front-of-House, Make-Up and Technical Teams and the lady that nobody wants to hear but one that gives performers such support, our Prompter, Glynis. Performers get their thanks and appreciation at the end of each performance with your, we hope, applause, but without these hidden teams we could not perform. We thank them all.

So, sit back and enjoy, hiss and boo the Baddies, cheer the Goodies and laugh out loud. It's Panto!

Terry

If you have enjoyed this evening's performance, or any of our previous productions, why not come and join us?
We are always happy to welcome new members to the Little Theatre.

You don't have to be on stage — there are many things to do behind the scenes — just take a look at our Production Team!
But, if you fancy the glare of the lights, we are open to increasing our on-stage talent.

Please feel free to speak to any of our members, looking after you in the Community Hall this evening, for further information.

Moreen
Morgan

It was with great sadness that the Theatre learned of the passing of one of its most loved members, Moreen Morgan, on the 27th October 2010.

Moreen was a lovely and cheerful lady who worked hard back stage in the make-up department.

Thanks Moreen for all your contributions to Briton Ferry Little Theatre.

You will be sorely missed
