Chairman's Greeting Good evening and welcome to our first production of the 2006-7 season.

I sincerely thank Simon Morgan for directing this play. Simon, a long standing member of Swansea Little Theatre, has also been a member of BFLT for almost two years, and it has been a privilege and a pleasure working under his direction. I also thank the cast for all their hard work, with special thanks to Adrian Isaac who has combined the designing and building of the set with a major acting role. My thanks also to the stage crew, back stage staff, front of house workers and all other members of the society who have made this production possible.

We are now in our 58th year, and with your support, will continue to provide live theatre in Briton Ferry for many more years.

I'm sure that you will enjoy this excellent thriller by Seymour Matthews, and look forward to seeing you at our next production, a pantomime - Oh! yes it is - in January. Have a lovely evening.

Welcome to this evening's performance of Anagram Of Murder. This play is a good old fashioned thriller with some very nice plot twists which will keep you guessing until the very end, in true Agatha Christie style.

Director's Notes

This is my first production for Briton Ferry Little Theatre as a director and it has been a pleasure to work with such a dedicated team of actors and crew. All have worked tirelessly on this production to present to you what we hope will be an enjoyable evening's entertainment which will keep you on the edge of your seats. To them all I extend my grateful thanks.

To you, our audience, I would like to thank you for your continued support and we look forward to seeing you again soon.
