Welcome to this evening's performance of "Barefoot in the Park", by Neil Simon. I hope you'll agree that this is a very funny and touching play. The cast have worked extremely hard for this play. As they are few in number, they have had mountains to learn. However, the commitment of each and every one of them has been total and I am very happy with the results.

Director's Notes

I would like to welcome Russell Workman to the society and wish him all the best with his first production with us. I would like to thank our Stage Manager, Adrian and his team for creating such a complex set. I think he has found it challenging on occasions, but I hope that he has also found it rewarding.

Although the play has been hard work, we have certainly had our fair share of fun and laughter during rehearsals. I hope you will enjoy yourselves as much tonight.

Donna Richards

Briton Ferry Little Theatre always welcome new members both on and behind stage. If you feel that you have a talent that you can offer, whether it be acting, design, backstage work or any other "artistic" talent, then we would love to have you on board.

Chairman's Address

Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen, and welcome to our third production of 2001.

Once again we have had a successful year. We endeavour to produce a variety of productions, hopefully to suit all tastes, and I hope that you will enjoy an updated version of Neil Simon's comedy "Barefoot in the Park", which we first performed in "The Kin" in 1976.

My sincere thanks to Donna and her cast for all their hard work, and a very warm welcome to Russell Workman, making his debut with Briton Ferry Little Theatre.

Once again, Thank you for your support and "Have a nice day evening."
