Director's Notes

May I begin by welcoming you to this evening's performance of Holiday Snap by Michael Pertwee and John Chapman. This extremely funny play centres around two couples and their experiences of a time-share property in Portugal.

I have been fortunate to work with a very experienced cast, who, once again, have given their full commitment to rehearsals. I would like to thank them all for their support and enthusiasm.

I would also like to express my thanks to the backstage crew, technical crew and wardrobe who have all been very active in their support of this play. Without their efforts, some of the most amusing incidents would not have been possible.

During rehearsals, there have been occasions of absolute hilarity. I sincerely hope you enjoy tonight's performance as much as we have enjoyed the rehearsals. Now sit back, relax and don't be afraid to laugh out loud.

Chairman's Greeting

Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen. Welcome to our first production of our 2003-4 season.

Due to popular demand from our patrons for a farce, we have chosen the seasonal comedy Holiday Snap. I hope you approve our choice.

I would like to thank Donna and her cast for all their hard work, also Gareth, for his part with Donna in designing the set.

If you have as many laughs watching, as the cast have had rehearsing, then their efforts have not been in vain. So sit back, enjoy yourselves and once again a sincere "thank you" for your continued support.

Joyce Harding
