LONG SERVICE AWARDS

On Friday, March 26th, Theatre members enjoyed a very pleasant dinner at the Baglan Bay Hotel. During the evening our President, Mr. F.J. Kingdom CBE, JP, MA, was delighted to present Long Service Medals, from The National Operatic and Dramatic Association (NODA), to qualifying members. This was only the second time in the fifty-five year history of Briton Ferry Little Theatre that these medals had been presented. Incidentally, the first presentation was also at the Baglan Bay Hotel. The members who received these medals were:

June Pugh (Ticket and Patron Secretary) - Forty Years

Don Pugh (Publicity Officer) - Thirty Years

Joyce Harding (Chair) - Thirty Years

Doug Harding (Scenic Artist) - Twenty-five Years

Terry Rees (Secretary) - Twenty-five Years

Chairman and Director's Notes

Good evening Ladies and Gentlemen, and a warm welcome to the third and final production of our 2003 / 2004 season.

For this production we have chosen two hilarious one-act plays written by David Tristram. Perhaps by Saturday night we will have discovered whether the only thing guaranteed to sell tickets is "SEX." I would stress however that the any comparisons between Little Grimley Amateur Dramatic Society and Briton Ferry Little Theatre is pure coincidence.

I sincerely thank the cast for their hard work and the fun we have had in rehearsals. Thanks also to the production team who always make such a valuable contribution, as do the front of house crew. The Society is very pleased to be making use of the equipment purchased with the grant received from the Briton Ferry Communities First Fund.

Lastly my thanks to you, our Patrons, for your support which makes all the hard work worthwhile. I look forward to welcoming you back in September.
