Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen,
and welcome to our first production of the 2002-3 season.

As you know BFLT endeavours to produce a variety of productions, and tonight we give you a play based on the true events that took place in 1960-1. A spy story, which many of you will remember, making the headlines 42 years ago. A story, brilliantly written by Hugh Whitmore, and one which I am sure you will enjoy tonight.

My sincere thanks to Donna and her cast, who have worked so hard with this challenging play. A very warm welcome back to the society to Sue Grant, and a very warm welcome to Sue's daughter Lucy, making her stage debut with us. Finally, thanks to you, our patrons, for your continued support.

Notes

May I begin by welcoming you to this evening's performance of "Pack of Lies" by Hugh Whitmore. The play is based on fact and is a story of betrayal of country and friends.

In 1961, Helen and Peter Kroger, two Americans living in a London suburb, were convicted of spying for the Russians and sentenced to twenty years imprisonment.

From these facts, Hugh Whitmore has written a fictional account of events leading up to their arrests, with the action centered on the unsuspecting Jackson household; Bob, Barbara and their daughter, Julie.

I am very pleased to welcome back to the society, after a break of several years, Sue Grant, and pleased to welcome her daughter, Lucy, making her debut with the society. They are both proving to be great assets to BFLT.

I would like to express my thanks to everyone involved in this production. The cast, back stage crew, technical crew and wardrobe, who have all worked very hard to make this production a success. I sincerely hope you enjoy our efforts tonight.

Now, sit back, relax and let us transport you to a cosy home in a quiet London suburb. The time is 1960.
