Director's Notes

Welcome to our first production of 2007 - The pantomime The Tinder Box - adapted by our very own Joyce Harding. As the story unfolds, before your very eyes, you will see that "love" has no boundaries.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the company and crew for all their hard work and dedication over the last few weeks.

May I wish you, our public, a pleasant evening, and thank you for your continued support.

Pauline

DIRECTOR

Mums, Dads, Boys and Girls; good evening and welcome. It's panto time again ... Oh yes it is! Pantomime has become a tradition for BFLT, and this year we are delighted to bring you The Tinder Box. (For the younger members of the audience, a tinder box was used before matches were invented.)

Chair's Greeting

Our panto gang have worked very hard under Pauline's excellent direction and have shown great enthusiasm. My thanks to Adrian and his stage crew for providing such an excellent set, also to wardrobe mistress June for her hard work on the costumes. We, as a society, are fortunate to have such a dedicated front of house and back stage team, and I thank them for all their efforts. On behalf of the Society, I wish Bethan Workman and Fred Halliday good luck on their debuts with BFLT and I am delighted to welcome Alex Benjamin, a very talented young musician, for agreeing to provide the music. We wish her every success in the future. Thanks also to Sarah Bizzell, who is also making her stage debut with BFLT, for the inspiration she has given to the younger members of the chorus. I hope we will see a lot more of her and the younger girls in the future.

All that remains is for me to thank you, the audience, and ask you to sit back, hiss, boo and shout 'til your heart's content. Have fun!

Joyce Harding
