Chairman's Greeting

Good evening, Ladies and Gentlemen.

Welcome to our second production of 2002. If our play seems familiar to some patrons, it is because we first performed it twenty years ago at Cwrt Sart School, where it proved a very popular choice.

I would like to thank Don and his large cast, for their dedication and hard work. It has been a pleasure to welcome back Vivienne Henderson after a long absence, and extend best wishes to Eleri Wallace, making her debut in a major production after many appearances in our annual pantomimes. We also welcome newcomer Ann Lewis, making her debut in this production.

Our society is now in its 53rd year, and I take this opportunity to thank all the people who work so hard to keep BFLT alive. Lastly, sincere thanks to you our patrons, without whom we would not exist.

Have an enjoyable evening.

Joyce Harding

Director's Notes

Ladies and Gentlemen.

With all the television shows we see today, telling us how to improve our culinary skills, why would anyone want to hire a cook? But if you do, be very careful, for it may not be "Ready, Steady, Cook," more like "Ready, Steady, DISASTER." You have been warned.

Have a nice evening.

Don Pugh
